PARTNERING WITH MINISTRIES FROM ACROSS THE COUNTY

Celebration at 5pm The theme "Cornwall Calling" - we hear from some of the many folk who have recently been "called" from elsewhere to mission here in Cornwall and Derek Thomas M.P. on his calling to serve Cornwall in Westminster.

Kids' Zone All day programme mainly for primary age children including "Wild Fire", movie time, Fuel Kids (games), face painting and a magician. Plus Messy Church and Story Telling in the Heartlands visitor centre.

"The Street" Two Gospel Choirs, Bikers, Christians in Sport, special drama presentation "Paul's Escape" (3pm), and praise & worship with Cornwall Worship at 1pm.

"Good News" Workshops/Presentations in the Tin Room

11am - "Come and See, Go and Tell" Seasoned evangelists share their experiences of working on the streets and doors in the community plus an opportunity to follow the cross to put this into practice at Murdoch Day, Redruth.

12:05 pm - Creativity "Experiencing God's Presence in your creativity".

Artist, Rachel Painter, who is also leading Colour Riot in the Atrium, will be sharing from her current series of work "Surrounded By Grander Things" portraying the creative journey through self expression, discovering God's plans and purposes for our creative process and to making him our compass in our artistic journey.

1:05 pm - Singing Gospel - An opportunity to join with Cornish Bard, William Thomas and the Fore Street, St Ives Gospel Choir in singing Gospel followed by a chance to perform in the Chi an Bobel Hall.

2:05 pm - Social Media I "Calling all Social Media Evangelists" Paul Fenton shows how you can share your faith effectively with just a couple of clicks on your phone. With practical strategies on how and why to do this, its for anyone who wants to evangelise but feels they struggle to do this face to face.

3:05 pm - Christians in Sport - Mike Harris from Christians in Sport will help us think about this enormous opportunity and how we can as individuals and churches share Jesus with those in sports clubs and teams across Cornwall.

4:05 pm - Social Media II "Reviving Faith in your community through the Local Church." This is for those who want to grow their Church through Social Media. Using Facebook techniques that have been successfully run at a local Church, this workshop will give you very simple ways that you can target thousands of people around your Church for a few £s.

Pulse Music Stage Breaks in the music programme will be filled with interviews with people taking part in Catalyst including at 12.35 those involved with the Cross Walk to visit Murdoch Day in Redruth.

Diaspora Gardens Try Archery, the Labryinth and join the Newquay Forest School for "Safe Knife use" 1pm, "Fire Lighting" 2pm and "Knots and Ropes" 3pm.

Why Catalyst? Catalyst is an initiative of Ambassadors for Christ which is seeking to inspire and challenge the church family to connect with the many groups in Cornwall that are involved with evangelism and reach out into their local communities. Our aim is to see more and more become involved in some way with the urgent need to spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

Parking Ticket The cost of a parking ticket from the pay and display car park (£3.00 for all day) can be redeemed against a purchase made at any of the Heartlands refreshment outlets and visitor centre. Please present your ticket stub at the till.
